

TROOPS ARREST
NEWSPAPER MEN

Entire Force of the Victor
Record Is Taken
Into the Militia
Camp.

GENERAL IS RILED

The Paper Had Attacked
the Troops Who Were Stationed at Cripple Creek.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
Victor, Colo., Sept. 30.—A coup in the strike of the miners in this district was executed when the militia closed the office of the Victor Record by the arrest of the entire working staff then at the office.

The Record has favored the miners' side of the controversy, and this is the cause for this action.

Gen. Bell and Chase announced earlier in the evening that the people of the district would be given object lessons of all those whose feelings would lead them to criticize the military. Gen. Chase at 11 o'clock, in command of a picked squad of fifty infantrymen and forty cavalry, marched to the office of the Record on South Fourth street.

Arrests Entire Force.
The following are the names of the men who were arrested: George E. Kyner, editor and manager; Walter Sweet, circulator; H. J. Richmond, foreman; Frank W. Langdon, compositor, and George Hasham.

The Record is the official paper of the local miners' union and of the Western Federation of Miners. Since the beginning of the strike the Record has printed the official statements of the strike committee and its sympathies were all for the union. Kyner was considered one of the strongest union men in the district. For a number of days editorials and statements have appeared in the Record which incensed the military officers, and it was decided to close up the paper and thus do away with this encouragement for the strikers.

Under Heavy Guard.
It is expected by the military that the action will stop the publication of the daily statements issued by the miners in the district. For weeks Editor Kyner has been under surveillance and it was thought at one time that his arrest would be made last week.

Because of the late hour at which the arrests were made, there were but few people on the streets, and those who saw the newspaper men marching up the street under heavy guard were awed by the martial showing. It is expected some of the prisoners will be released.

GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY'S PLAY

Wisconsin and Michigan Have No
Contests Set for Today—Season's Resume.

Thus far this season none of the big football teams of either the east or west have had hard games. Practically this is the second football day of the year. Last Saturday opened the season, both east and west minor teams playing the heavier ones of the Big Five in the east and the same holding good in the Big Nine in the west. Wisconsin thus far has had no games. In fact the varsity team has practically only lined up against the scrubs for one good hard scrimmage and in that the scrubs were victorious, making the only touchdown on a fumble. Chicago has had two games and today meets Monmouth. Northwestern plays the Alumni and Minnesota MacAlester. Illinois who this year has Pennsylvania's coach, George Woodruff, has a game with the Kirskeville Osteopaths at Champaign.

Eastern Games
Yale bucks up against Tufts in their annual game, Harvard plays Bowdoin, Princeton meets Swarthmore and Pennsylvania meets Franklin and Marshall; Columbia plays Wesleyan, Cornell plays Alfred, Carlisle versus St. Mary's; Dartmouth meets the Massachusetts state, Brown plays Colby and Georgetown Western Maryland. None of the games are important and none will give a fair line of the playing of the Big Five. The same is true in the west.

Unknown Quantity
All of the teams are as yet unknown quantity. Wisconsin more so than any of the others. Thus far Coach Curtis has not developed much of anything from the Badger material although the talk is that they will have a better team than ever before. Chicago is having trouble with charges of professionalism that may injure the Maroons and Michigan is being savagely attacked on the same grounds by the Detroit Free Press. Beloit seems to be doing better than any of the western small colleges and its report of practices are full of ginger and snappy playing.

FESTIVE PICKLE
IS NOT TO SOAR

Peter Hohenadel Does Not Forecast
Rise in the Price of
"Cukes."

"I am not a prophet, or son of a prophet, but there will be no advance in the price of cucumber pickles this year as far as I am able to forecast the market," said Peter Hohenadel, Jr., this morning when interviewed regarding an article in the morning paper. "The cucumber crop has not been as large per acre this year as in some former years and it has cost us a little more but I do not believe that this will make any noticeable difference in the prices paid by consumers." Mr. Hohenadel scouted the idea of a raise from $5 to $8 per barrel for medium grades.

No Famine Threatens
The crop harvested for the Hohenadel factory this year is as large as that of last year and it is presumed that in general the same condition exists elsewhere. The young ladies' boarding schools have no cause for alarm. The festive pickle is not going to soar skyward or compete with the expensive olive for a place on the exclusive tables of the rich. It will continue to retain its modest place among the staples of the market—inexpensive, but "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

ARRANGE GAMES
FOR FOUR YEARS

Chicago Will Meet Madison for Four Years More, on the Grid-Iron.

A contract providing for Chicago-Wisconsin football games for the next four seasons was agreed to yesterday by Director Stagg of Chicago and Manager Kilpatrick of Wisconsin in a conference at the University of Chicago. It provides for games as follows:

1904—At Chicago. Thanksgiving day. 1905—At Madison, Milwaukee or Chicago, some time in November. 1906—At Chicago. Thanksgiving day. 1907—At a field to be chosen by Wisconsin some time in November. Manager Kilpatrick said that the November date for the 1905 game was not set, so that if for any reason Michigan and Chicago should break relations Wisconsin could take the Thanksgiving day date. The schedule as now arranged contemplates Michigan-Chicago games on the alternate Thanksgiving days.

The contract agreed to yesterday has yet to be ratified. It was also arranged that Wisconsin should participate in the cross-country run on the forenoon of Thanksgiving day.

WITNESS IN TILLMAN MURDER
TRIAL TELLS OF STATEMENT

Dying Victim Said He Supposed the Man Got Him When Told He Would Die.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
Lexington, S. C., Sept. 30.—Dr. James McIntosh was the first witness in today's session of the Tillman murder trial. He testified when he got on the ambulance with Gonzales the latter asked him if he was mortally wounded. The doctor told him he thought he was. Gonzales responded, "Yes, I suppose the fellow got me," and covered up his face.

PEACE REPLACES RIOT
AT THE CANADIAN SOO

Former Employees of the Consolidated
Lake Superior Company Find Work Elsewhere.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 30.—All is peaceful here, and from the present outlook there is little danger of further disturbances by the former employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior company.

Nine men were arrested charged with taking part in the riot in this city. The numerous requests by employment agencies for the services of many of the large number of employees thrown out of work and the absence of destitution have given the men hope.

Mayor Plummer has, with the sanction of the municipality, readily aided the needy, who are declared to be few, but he announced in a statement that with the arrival of a detachment of the militia all unemployed men of the company who have refused to accept the offers of work elsewhere will be forced to leave.

Since the attack by the mob on the company's offices the local militia, reinforced by the police, has guarded the plants of the company.

Communication between the two Soos, which was ordered stopped, has been resumed.

Grand Jury Ignores Lynchers.
Wilmington, Del., Sept. 30.—The grand jury has announced that it had decided to ignore the bill against those concerned in the burning at the stake of the negro who assaulted and murdered Miss Helen Bishop.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
Vienna, Sept. 30.—The czar of Russia has arrived here today to visit Emperor Francis Joseph. He was given a most enthusiastic welcome and the police are closely guarding the two monarchs and the shooting park is surrounded by a cordon of police.

THROW STONES AT OFFICERS

Fifteen Members of German Regiment
Are Arrested for Offense.

Private soldiers belonging to the Second (Baden) Grenadier regiment, threw stones at their officers recently while riding at Reichenhausen. Fifteen of the soldiers were arrested and have been taken to Heidelberg for trial. Members of this regiment were recently sentenced for assaulting a sergeant named Peters. The army authorities hold the socialist successes at the elections to be partly responsible for the discontent among the soldiers.

Was Known at the Resort That He Was Sick.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
London, Sept. 30.—Word has been received that Sir Michael Herbert, the British ambassador to America, died at Davos Platz, Switzerland, this morning of consumption. His death was totally unexpected.

Was Sick
It was known that the ambassador had left Washington on a leave of absence owing to illness, but his life was not thought to be in any danger. He has had lung affection for some time past but nothing serious.

CONDITIONS FAVORABLE
FOR MATURING OF CORN

Illinois Crop Bulletin Shows Weather for Week Has Been Good for the Farmers.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—The crop bulletin for the week ended Sept. 28 follows:

"With clear, dry weather for a period of nearly ten days, conditions have been highly favorable for farm work and the maturing of the corn crop. A general rainfall occurred the night of the 26th; otherwise clear, sunny weather, with drying winds, has prevailed throughout the week. Light frosts were reported, but no damaging effects ensued. The temperature has been slightly below normal. The soil is in excellent condition and plowing and seeding have been prosecuted. The acreage sown in wheat probably will show a decrease.

"The corn crop in many localities is already safe from a decrease and the remainder is rapidly advancing toward maturity. While later reports indicate some damage from last week's frost, the extent of the damage is inconsiderable. The outlook is assuring and only severe and untoward weather conditions will affect the prospects. Cutting is in active operation in many localities.

"Pastures maintain excellent condition; clover haying has progressed with satisfactory yield; broom corn is being cut—quality good; a good crop of cow peas is being harvested. "The potato crop is below average. Complaints are still received of considerable rotting. Apples continue to drop and the yield will show a greatly reduced amount."

GOLF TOURNAMENT STARTED WITH CLOUDY SKIES TODAY

Woman's National Golf Championship Is to Be Decided at Wheaton.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
Chicago, Sept. 30.—Under cloudy skies sixteen couples started off this morning for the first round of the match play for the Woman's National Golf championship on the Wheaton links. The course is not the best, a heavy shower of rain having fallen just before the play began.

TORTURES HIS WOUNDED VICTIM

Missourian Shoots Another and Stands
Off Rescuers Four Hours.
St. Louis, Sept. 30.—August Kruegel, a cigar manufacturer of Central, St. Louis county, shot Fritz Kruegel during a quarrel. For four hours Kruegel stood over the wounded man with a loaded shotgun and refused to permit anyone to come to his assistance, though he begged piteously for water. A deputy sheriff finally succeeded in arresting Kruegel, and medical attendance was given his victim.

MUST LEAVE
THE COLLEGE

Senior at Beloit Marries, and Is Suspended—Wedded in June.

Charles S. Buck, a senior at Beloit college, has been refused entrance to the fall term because of his marriage last June, there being a law in the school, that students attending must not seek wives. When the members of the senior class heard of their colleague's suspension, and the reason for it, they immediately prepared a petition which was taken to President Eaton. Nothing was done about it, however, and it is thought that Mr. Buck will probably enter Chicago university. Mr. Buck's bride is Miss Della M. Simpson, of Epworth, Ill., and the couple have been old friends for a long time, so their marriage was in no way a college flirtation. The suspended senior is extremely popular with his classmates and in the college generally and the action of the faculty is a great disappointment to many.

PLANT FOOD IS THE SAME EVERYWHERE

Milton Whitney Makes a Decided Announcement as to Soils.

One of the scientists of the department of agriculture, Prof. Milton Whitney, chief of the bureau of soils, who spent much time in Janesville last summer, has made a discovery which Secretary Wilson regards of the utmost scientific and practical importance. Prof. Whitney has found that the amount of plant food in all kind of soil is about the same, thus exploding the popular theory that one soil is richer than another, so far as the quantity of food it contains is adapted to the growing of crops. The reason one piece of ground will yield a better crop than another plot adjoining, is yet to be found. In the view of Prof. Whitney, he believes that the difference in yield is dependent upon the condition and kind of cultivation and rotation of crops.

Having determined that there is as much plant food in one piece of ground as in another, the scientist will now have to determine what element it is that produces a good or bad yield. Prof. Whitney's conclusions are based upon analysis by which the amount of plant food in the soil moisture itself has been determined.

PAPER APPEARS AS USUAL
IN VICTOR THIS MORNING

General Chase Will Continue to Arrest All Employees
Though.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)
Victor, Colo., Sept. 30.—The Record which was raided by the troops last night and all its employees arrested for alleged seditious conduct, appeared as usual this morning. The editor having engaged an entire new force. Gen. Chase says he will continue to arrest employees unless they cease publishing the miners' union statements.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Dr. L. M. Willard of Loomis, Wash., was found dead in bed. A bottle of chloroform in his left hand indicated suicide, believed to have been induced by fears of going blind. Fletcher Hall and Chester Parker, of Chicago, alleged magnetic healers, who have been in jail in Peoria for two months for fraud, were released. They went to Springfield, Mass.

The cylinder of the hydraulic elevator at G. T. McAuley's wholesale millinery house in Columbus, O., blew out, allowing the elevator to fall from the third floor to the basement. Six employees were injured.

Governor Beckham of Kentucky has issued a call for a special election Nov. 10 to elect a successor to Vincent Borling, congressman from the eleventh district, who died about two weeks ago. This is the date of the state election.

SEEKS TO ENJOIN PROFANITY

Indiana Man Asks Court to Stop Neighbors From Swearing.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 30.—One of the most unique legal complaints on record was filed in the Circuit court on behalf of James Povlock, who asks Judge Richter to enjoin Hamilton Hoover from swearing at the former's children. It is sought by legal process to have the Circuit court place an injunction on Mr. Hoover's mouth and bring about a reformation. Povlock is the father of five children, who refuse to attend school for the reason that they are compelled to pass the Hoover house and are thus forced to listen to the profane language in which he indulges. Attorneys say that it is the first case of its character on record in the courts of the state and the action is declared to be within the law.

PRESIDENT ENDS
MILLER TALK

He Positively Refuses To Discuss the Question
Any Further with Trades' Unions.

PERSONAL FITNESS

Declares That the Man, Not Union, Must Be Considered in Holding a Government Job.

(Special By Scripps-McLain.)

Washington, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt will not dismiss Foreman Miller from the public printing office because of the union's objection to the man. That this is his final decision was announced formally by the president at a conference with Samuel Gompers, James Duncanson, John Mitchell, James C. "Boss" Morrison, representing the American Federation of Labor.

The federation leaders gave no indication whether or not it is their intention to carry the case still further and attempt to influence the national election. It is known, however, that the conservative element is in the majority in the executive council, and every effort will be made to keep the labor unions out of politics next year.

Official Statement.
At the close of the conference a statement was given out to the press quoting the president as saying to the labor leaders:

"As regards the Miller case, I have little to add to what I have already said. In dealing with it I ask you to remember that I am dealing purely with the relation of the government to its employees. I must govern my action by the laws of the land, which I am sworn to administer, and which differentiate any case in which the government of the United States is a party from all other cases whatsoever.

Cannot Discriminate.
"These laws are enacted for the benefit of the whole people, and cannot and must not be construed as permitting discrimination against some of the people. I am president of all the people of the United States without regard to creed, color, birthplace, occupation or social conditions. My aim is to do equal and exact justice as among them all.

"In the employment and dismissal of men in the government service I can no more recognize a fact that a man does or does not belong to a union as being for or against him than I can recognize the fact that he is a Protestant or a Catholic, a Jew or a Gentile as being for or against him.

Decision Is Final.
"In the communications sent me by various labor organizations protesting against the retention of Miller in the government printing office, the grounds alleged are two-fold: (1) That he is a nonunion man; (2) That he is not personally fit.

"The question of his personal fitness is one to be settled in the routine of administrative detail, and cannot be allowed to conflict with or to complicate the larger question of governmental discrimination for or against him or any other man because he is or is not a member of a union.

"This is the only question now before me for decision, and as to this my decision is final."

STRIKE IS OVER;
WORK RESUMED

Only Twelve of the Art Study Help
Were Out This Morning.

This morning not over a dozen of the striking employees of the Art Study company were still holding out, according to President Phillips, and those had all received their pay, so the strike is practically at an end as the factory continued as usual this morning. A new superintendent will be secured in the near future and things at the plant will then resume the even tenor of their way.

GRAND JURY INDICTS MAYOR

Executive of Springfield Is Charged With Neglecting His Duty.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—The report that the grand jury had voted an indictment against Mayor Devereaux is confirmed by the mayor. It consists of three counts accusing him of neglecting his duty in the matter of enforcing the laws against gambling, disreputable houses and slot machines. The grand jury refused to vote an indictment against Sheriff Brainerd on the same charge. State's Attorney Shutt will demand that a special state's attorney be appointed to prosecute Devereaux, whose personal friend he has been since childhood. He openly says he has no sympathy with the prosecution, declaring it to be the work of politicians.

Yesterday was an ideal day for the golfers and the nine couples who played in the mixed foursome during the afternoon were close contestants for the McGiffin trophy. The winners will be paired for the second round to come off next Tuesday. The first pairs chosen to begin were Albert Schaller and Mrs. J. C. Page, who were to contest with Wilson Lane and Mrs. W. G. Wheeler. This match was put off until later in the week, however, because of the illness of Mr. Schaller.

The other players who were scheduled to play started promptly at the appointed time. A. J. Harris playing with Mrs. H. R. King, handicap fifteen, defeated F. E. Fifield and Miss Catherine Fifield, handicap eight, two up. The closest contest of the afternoon was between Harry G. Carter and Miss Elizabeth Schickler, handicap six, in playing H. R. King and Mrs. A. J. Harris, handicap nine, and resulted in their playing eleven holes to decide a tie at the ninth hole. Mr. King and Mrs. Harris won out, two up and one to play.

The other players were J. P. Baker and Mrs. John Phillips, handicap four, winning against H. S. McGiffin and Miss Mabel Jackson, handicap ten, by two up and one to play. Charles E. Dunn and Mrs. P. L. Myers, handicap six, won from Fred Schaller and Wilma McGiffin, handicap eighteen, by two up and one to play. The handicaps were well placed and it is expected that there will be several close contests before the finals are decided.

The parsonage of the First Methodist church was last night the scene of a gay farewell party for Miss Alba Crawford, given by Miss Edith Warner and Miss Pearl Hall. Supper was served at 6:30, the dining room being decorated very tastefully for the occasion. Purple and white being the color scheme used for the whole house. Then came games of a progressive nature which filled the evening. Eighteen young lady friends of Miss Crawford were present to say their farewells. Miss Crawford will soon leave for Barron where she will make her future home. Miss Mable Woodman and Miss Crawford were the prize winners of the evening. Those present were Miss Alba Crawford, Misses Etta and Nellie Hollis, Kate and Bessie Barnes, Myrtle Hayner, Iva Poorman, Mrs. Fannie Clark, Alice Clithero, Grace Lighthizer, Gertrude Lake, Mable Woodman, Bertha Rutter, Florence Ryder, Alice Sanner, Luella Lake, Pearl Hall, and Edith Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pond gave a delightful entertainment for a number of friends last evening, the occasion being a trip to Idlewild park. The party journeyed upstream in

WAS FIRST MATCH AT HOCKETT'S

Two Series of Three Games Bowled Last Evening—Scores Good

A crowd of enthusiastic bowlers gathered at Hockett's alleys last evening and watched the first regular match of the season between two five men teams, headed by Robert Hockett and Harry Schmidley. Three games were played, total points to count. For the time of the year, considering that the match was the first for some time, and the players had little practice, it is thought that the scores were good. Captain Schmidley bowled his team to victory with a majority of 199 points. The following were the scores.

THEY WILL DUMP DIRT ELSEWHERE

No Effort Will Be Made To Have the Injunction Dissolved.

Upon application of the Blodgett Milling company, Court Commissioner M. P. Richardson has issued an injunction order to prevent the Janesville Contracting company, the Janesville Electric company, or any of their agents from filling up the race of the Janesville Power company. The injunction was served by Sheriff Appleby yesterday.

The milling company asked for the order because they feared that their water power would be ruined by the partial filling of the race. The Janesville Contracting company had begun a day earlier to deposit the dirt and rubbish that they were taking from the excavations at the site of their new power plant. In the mill race and along the bank directly across from the dam where the preparatory work for their new plant is going on.

The Janesville Contracting company will make no effort to have the injunction set aside as the dirt from the excavating can be easily placed elsewhere. They claim, however, that the partial filling in of the race would in no way affect the supply of power that the plants further down stream control and that the Blodgett Milling company would have more power than they could use even though the race was partially filled in.

Town Talks.

The following colloquy, with substitutions for the actual names used, occurred in a residence on South Main street one day last week:

"Mabel is a bright industrious girl and is a great help to her mother. Aunt Susan lets her work in the tobacco every fall."

"Well, tobacco is a filthy weed but if people will use it, I suppose it's all right."

"Why Mary Clark, how can you talk like that! You know very well that tobacco isn't even mentioned in the Bible. As for me, I'd strave before I'd let a child of mine work in it. It's just as wicked to help prepare the stuff as to use it."

IS GIVEN GOLD WATCH FOR HIS GREAT BRAVERY

Father of Rescued Boy Acknowledges Services of Ward Ryan.

Ward Ryan, the young man who saved Joe Weber from drowning at Monterey on Labor day was this morning given a handsome gold watch by Mr. Weber in recognition of his brave service. The watch is inscribed with the date and reasons for the presentation and the name of the rescued boy and will always be highly prized by Mr. Ryan. On the day of the accident the boys were fishing near the Monterey bridge. Joe Weber slipped into the swift stream and would have lost his life but for the efforts of his friend, Fred Green was a distant witness of the rescue.

MUCH HONEY THIS SEASON

SEVERAL FARMERS KEEP BEES IN THIS VICINITY.

WHITE CLOVER IS THE BEST

Large Apiaries on Farms Near Milton and Monroe Largely Supply the Market.

The general supply of honey in this part of the country has been very plentiful this year and the business of bee raising becoming more general among the farmers of Rock county, where several are now interested in this industry and there are a few who have apiaries of considerable size with a large yearly output of the delicious product.

Few Near Janesville. Aside from the money to be made by raising bees, it is a most delightful and absorbing study to care for them. Dr. Rockwell, of Johnstown is an enthusiastic bee keeper and has a large number of hives. There are not many bee keepers in the immediate vicinity of Janesville and the few that care for small number of hives near the city and in different parts of the county use the honey for home consumption, for honey is one of the privileges of farm life, not always to be had in the cities.

Some Bee Keepers. Mr. Willis, of Milton, has many hives which yield him an average of 15,000 pounds. Mr. Curtiss is another bee enthusiast. H. Lathrop, of Brownstown has two large apiaries and supplies many dealers in this and other neighboring cities. Mr. O'Neill, of Porter, is a successful bee raiser and there are some extensive honey producers in and near Monroe. A number of farmers occasionally bring in honey to the dealers, but it is only at times when the syrup is very plentiful, for most of the local grocers say that their supply, or a large part of it comes from more distant farms or through other dealers.

Different Kinds. Although there are many kinds of honey, the commonest varieties are sweet clover, buckwheat, basswood, white clover, and fall honey, so called because it is made from golden rod and other autumn flowers. Sweet clover honey has a minty taste and is not liked by some people. Buckwheat honey is very strong, and is a deep yellow in color. Basswood honey is liked by very many, is used extensively and is better than fall honey. However, the purest and absolutely the best honey is that made from the white clover. This is the kind that the bees owned by Rock county farmers and apiarists largely produce.

Clover Honey Best. State Inspector Frantz, who raises bees extensively on his farm near Plattville, declares that the white clover honey is without exception the best. He says also, that the importance of clean hives, combs, etc., cannot be overestimated, as the direct result of any carelessness is foul broods.

Artificial Feeding. Many dealers winter their bees on other materials than pure honey, and much of the honey on the market in big cities is made by bees fed on sugar or glucose. This, necessarily cannot be as pure or of as sweet a flavor as the honey from flower fed bees.

Wise Creatures. Stories of the remarkable intelligence shown by bees, are too well known to be repeated here. But it is a well established fact that they have their colonies, queens, drones, workers, governments, etc. It is interesting to watch the confusion that ensues when a strange bee is thrown into a colony. It is immediately seized upon stung to death and thrown out, the bees seeming to know by instinct when a foreign member enters. Bees are very quiet when there is plenty of honey, but when there is a shortage they become very cross and are ready to sting any person who comes near them. To some people the sting is merely an annoyance, while to others it is so poisonous that a few bites would be fatal.

TOBACCO TALK FOR THE GROWERS

The New York Markets Are Reported To Be Dull at the Present Time.

The New York tobacco markets are reported to be dull at present. Some fair sized transactions in '91 Pennsylvania Broad leaf, Gelbart and Zimmer Spanish were reported during the week. The 1902 Wisconsin is being looked for with considerable interest.

Pennsylvania Lively. There is an active demand for '02 goods in Pennsylvania and packing has been bought up at a rate that promises to clear the warehouses in a short time. An aggregate of 2013 cases were sold during the week. For the corresponding week last year only 914 cases were sold. The '01 crop is also finding purchasers. This year's crop is reported to be going into the sheds too rapidly much of the leaf being cut while in an unripe condition.

Florida Storm Damage. The destructive storm of the 13th, which swept over the lower portion of Florida did great damage to the tobacco interests. Key West seems to have been out of the range of the storm, but Tampa was struck with full force. The cigar trade in Tampa has been injured to a great extent. The roofs of some of the factories have been blown away and the stocks of tobacco and cigars have been damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars. Other losses in the city of Tampa pale into insignificance as compared with the damage to this industry. One factory alone claims to have lost at least $10,000 by water injuring its stock of tobacco.

A SMOKY TALK FOR JANESVILLE Many People Talk of Annoyance, But Refuse To Give Opinions for Publication. "When the wind's right it's simply 'h'—in here, but I do not wish to be quoted," "Smoke?—well I should say so. I have to keep the windows down all the time and even then it sifts in—but don't quote me." "I should say there is a smoke nuisance. It comes in so thick sometimes that we are nearly stifled. Something ought to be done. Of course, I wouldn't want my name in the newspaper and be set down as a klicker—unprofessional, you know." Great Billows of Smoke. The Gazette made a small tour of investigation yesterday to discover whether or not there was a smoke nuisance in Janesville. The above were some of the answers to the questions propounded. Every now and then great black clouds from one or another of the chimneys along the west bank of the river would sweep against the buildings and shut out the sun. Most of the windows facing south and west were shut and the atmosphere was rather close in the majority of the apartments.

Women Alone Speak Out. In the Jackman and Hayes blocks there are fifty or more tenants. Yet, while the majority condemned the smoke nuisance and said that a stop ought to be put to it, not one man would allow his name to be used in a complaint. There were two women, however, who were willing to "speak their minds."

Work is being pushed rapidly on the (Glenwood Detroit branch of the Soo road and it will be in operation by the middle of December. Janesville, Wis., Sept. 29, 1903. Sealed proposals will be received at this building until 2 o'clock p. m. October 15th, 1903, for furnishing fuel, lights, water, ice, miscellaneous supplies, washing towels, hauling ashes, and sprinkling streets for this building during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, or such portion of the year as may be deemed advisable. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved by the Treasury Department. C. H. KING, Custodian, U. S. P. O.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, Sept. 30, 1863.—Col. Fairchild, the candidate for secretary of state, visited this city today, on his way home from attendance at a Union meeting at Oshkosh. He is in good health, and we hope that he has yet many years to be devoted to the service of his country.

A Big Day in The Grain Market.—Not less than 15,000 bushels of grain was brought into this market yesterday, in WAGONS. About 10,000 bushels of this was wheat, and the remaining 5,000 principally oats and barley. Is there not another town in the whole country, east or west that can beat this? In connection with this it may be stated that there are upwards of 20 other railroad depots in this country, (composed of 20 townships) and that this point is not therefore, to be considered the exclusive grain market of this region.

Hon. Jas. E. Doolittle, United States senator, will address the people on the public questions of the day as follows: Janesville, Thursday, Oct. 1st. Jefferson, Friday, October 2d.

edition of which is presented by Joe W. Spears, farce comedy star triumvirate, is the work of Edgar Selden, the prolific play writer who has contributed many successes to the American stage, his most recent hit "The Rays," "A Hot Old Time", being still warm in the affections of amusement lovers. This new edition of the Irish Pawnbrokers is said to be one of the brightest, cheekiest pieces of extravaganza yet seen, abounding with comical situations and dialogue, the smartness of which is beyond dispute.

Mr. Selden would seem to have kept this motto in view throughout:—

"Who would write three net must—" cal farce must not stop at trifles." The fun is of the rip roaring, mirth compelling order, yet never descends to buffoonery or caricature. The heart affairs of the amorous middle aged Adonises have always played an important part in works of this description, and much of the trouble in "The Irish Pawnbrokers" is brought about in the same way.

THE CROP BULLETIN

The weather during the past week has been generally fair and pleasant except Friday and Saturday, when light and scattered showers occurred. In some sections of the state, light to killing frosts occurred Wednesday and Sunday nights, doing some damage to corn. Farmers have taken advantage of the dry weather to complete threshing, and a large acreage of second crop clover was secured in very excellent condition during the week. Some fall plowing has been done on high, well drained land, but on low land the soil is still too wet from the excessive rains during the first of the month to make plowing possible. The streams and rivers in the central and western portions of the state are still at a very high stage, and in many sections lowlands are flooded. Pastures continue excellent and stock is generally in fine condition.

Corn
Notwithstanding the heavy frost during the week the condition of the corn crop has improved materially. In some localities the crop has escaped serious damage by the frosts and has matured rapidly under the full sunshine and moderately high day temperatures. In other sections the frosts were only sufficiently severe to destroy the leaves, leaving sufficient vitality in the stock to mature the ear. Probably about fifty per cent. of the crop is now fully matured, and will yield sound, marketable corn, while about twenty-five per cent. will be soft, but of fairly good feeding qualities. A portion of the remainder has been cut for fodder, but considerable will be left standing and stock turned on later. As a whole the crop has turned out better than was anticipated at the beginning of the month.

Potatoes
The dry weather during the past week has been very favorable for potato digging, and this work has progressed rapidly. Complaints of rotting continue and the yield in most sections will be light and of inferior quality. The crop in a few localities, however, in the northern and central counties, where the soil is sandy and well drained is reported very satisfactory.

Tobacco
The harvesting of tobacco is completed and the crop is generally curing well. The yield has been large, and the quality excellent.

Minor Crops
Sugar beets are being secured. The yield is very large and the quality is considered very excellent. Second crop clover is a heavy crop, and a large acreage was harvested during the week in excellent condition.

Fruit
The high winds during the week caused some loss of apples. The crop is light but generally of good quality. The picking of cranberries proceeded rapidly during the week and this work is now nearing completion.

Southern Section
Genoa Junction, Walworth county: Frosts of the 17th and 23rd did no damage in this section; oats about all threshed; potatoes damaged by rot and blight.—E. O. Kull.

Alderly, Dodge county: Corn will be about two-thirds of a full crop, and perhaps better; about one-half of the crop cut; pastures good.—John Steele.

Westby, Vernon county: Farm work progressing rapidly; some threshing done; oats rather light; corn being cut and shocked; early corn good.—Paul T. Paulson.

Milton Junction, Rock county: Good weather for farm work; frost damaged a great deal of corn crop; no improvement in potato crop.—John Stockman.

SKAT TOURNAMENT AT WORLD'S FAIR

Another Gigantic Feature of the Louisiana Purchase Exhibit Is Fixed Upon

Two thousand members of the North American Skat league will contest under one roof at the same time next June for the world's championship at one of the most scientific of games.

The tournament will be conducted in one of the large halls on the world's fair grounds at St. Louis. There will be two sessions, one at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 11, 1904, and the other at 8 o'clock on the same evening.

Henry Kortjohn, president of the North American Skat league, by direction of the organization, which has branches in every large American city, has accepted the invitation extended by President Francis, of the Louisiana purchase exposition, and a local committee of prominent St. Louisians has been appointed to make arrangements and provide entertainment.

Valuable Prizes
Prizes valued at more than $3,000 will be distributed among the winners of the great skat tournaments. There will be no cash prizes, however, all trophies being souvenirs or articles of practical use.

The hall where the tournament will be held will witness the largest card game ever played in America. The hall will contain 50 tables with four chairs to each table, and a skilled player will occupy each chair. Expert skat players from every section of America will participate in the games. The tables will be widely enough separated to allow free passage between the tables. The players when they enter the tournament will banish all other thoughts from their mind save the game of skat. White aproned waiters will pass around and supply them with refreshments. Skat players as a rule, are inveterate smokers, and the harder the game the thicker the smoke becomes.

The Tournaments
These tournaments will be the main features of the annual convention of the North American Skat league, and the convention will hold sessions on June 11, 12, 13 and 14. While there will be but 2,000 players who will qualify as contestants in the tournament, double that number will attend the convention and will witness the contests for supremacy among the experts. The delegates to the convention will be the guests of the local skat players and the Louisiana purchase exposition. The national president, Henry

The following local committee will have charge of arrangements during the invasion of the skat players: Casper Koehler, president; Herman Overstolz, financial secretary; Herman Morrell, treasurer, and Ernst Helfensteller, Bernard Tholman, and N. N. Kaufmann.

Preferred Rockford: William V. D. Lunde and Sophia Ennenga, both of Byron, Ill., secured a marriage license of County Clerk Starr yesterday, but when they found they would have to wait five days and were told no delays were necessary in Rockford, they left for the Forest City on the first car. They kept the Rock county license as a souvenir.

OVER CONSCIENTIOUS
 It is said of a man whose conscience works over time that he is too pure and that he is so straight laced that he leans over backward. The percentage of men who are troubled with this complaint is never very large in any community, and yet there are always a few.

In politics these men refuse to vote for high license as a regulator of the liquor traffic, because they believe that all license is wrong, and although the state is responsible for the law, they can not conscientiously vote for a given amount of license.

In the religious world this class of men regard the theatre as a hot bed of immorality, and innocent amusements as devices of the devil.

These people have the reputation of being narrow and they are not often selected for positions of public trust and responsibility but sometimes when a war of reform sweeps over a community they are brought to the front.

If there is any criticism to offer on the present city council it is along this line. While the members of this organization are recognized as honest men, there is an air of timidity about the city hall that is both noticeable and annoying.

The old council had the reputation of doing things and doing them with a recklessness that was open to just criticism, yet the fact remains that while the city may not have enjoyed full value for investments, it had something tangible to show by way of improvements.

In the change of administration the city has gone from the extreme of recklessness to the extreme of caution with a large C, and the letter of the law is observed without regard to the spirit of the measure.

The Gazette took a lively interest in the change referred to, and the paper feels warranted in offering a word of criticism.

The city has a population of some 15,000 and there are some expenses connected with its support, that are classed as fixed charges, to be dealt with the same as a business man disposes of the same class of charges in his business.

Among these charges, is the school fund, the water and lighting tax, the fire department, street repairs, salary account and contingent expenses, amounting in all to something like $100,000.

The tax levy and license account are supposed to furnish the money to meet these necessary expenses and the income is apportioned to the various funds as received.

As the source of income is naturally restricted to two or three annual payments it very frequently happens that certain funds are exhausted while others have a surplus.

The letter of the law provides that no fund shall be overdrawn, and so work that belongs to fixed charges is neglected, or where the case is extremely urgent, money is borrowed, with an idle surplus in other funds.

This may be good law, but put in rigid practice it is a poor display of common sense.

A merchant handling a variety of goods might rule that every department must be self supporting. A railroad might say that every bob tail must show a clear balance sheet, but it has never been known to work in commercial life, and it will never work successfully in municipal life.

The people are taxed for the support of the city, a part of this money is paid for street repairs, and the time to make these repairs is when they are needed, without regard to the condition of any particular fund.

The money provided for this purpose is ample for the year, and there is no economy in neglect, in fact there is an element of danger that should not be overlooked.

What is true of the streets is true of all other fixed charges. The general income provides for general expenses, and the council will be commended for using business sense in disbursing this income.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Tom Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, is making a tour of the state in the interests of municipal ownership of public utilities.

The republican press of the state is taking him to task for his erratic notions, and assert that it is not necessary for him to go away from home to prove the fallacy of his theories.

The Cincinnati Enquirer recently quoted the Hon. Charles Francis Adams of Massachusetts who summed up an address on Municipal Ownership as follows:

"Please don't talk to me of doing business through government machinery; it is one colossal exhibition of waste, extravagance and incompetence."

The editor of the Enquirer follows this scathing denunciation with the statement that:

"The arguments in favor of government ownership are, generally, specious and are put forward by enthusiasts who are unsound on nearly every public proposition. The republican form of government could not endure such a system."

The paper then refers to the case of Cleveland. That city has been engaged for some time in putting in a system of water works with the following extravagant results.

Cleveland's political managers have been spending taxpayers money in the construction of a tunnel through which it is hoped to obtain good drinking water for the people.

In the course of time this tunnel has been completed, but the manager of the water works has been so busy getting up plans, writing articles and making speeches to induce the citizens of Cleveland to trust him with the spending of several hundred thousand dollars for the construction of a municipal electric lighting plant he has neglected to get a pumping station finished in time to utilize the tunnel. Now a two-million investment in a tunnel must stand idle, waiting for the finishing of a one million dollar pumping station. While in this condition the tunnel must be a source of expense. It must be forced full of air to prevent the accumulation of gases that might cause explosions or a collapse from outside pressure.

Interest on the bonds issued on account of tunnel and pumping station construction create another daily expense while the tunnel stands idle and the people suffer for the want of pure water. This is a high price to pay for incompetent management and should be a conclusive argument against intrusting additional mechanical and industrial work to the management of the water works department.

The Columbia Dispatch, in an issue of recent date, gives the experience of that city in attempting to install a lighting plant at public expense.

An estimate was made and bonds issued, but the money was exhausted before the work was half completed, and now the tax payers are confronted with a proposition to issue more bonds, or lose the work already performed.

The contract called for a smokestack 175 feet high. The Dispatch says:

"There has been let a contract for a machinery foundation. But between this foundation and the base of the 175 foot smokestack there was an hiatus of 24 feet. Mahomet's coffin, supposed to be suspended in mid-air, was a small circumstance in comparison with this enormous structure, hanging from nothing, resting on air."

"It was decided that there should be something built to fill this important hole of 24 feet between the stack and the foundation. Plans were made for the necessary structure between the foundation and the stack. The smoke from the furnace, if it was to go through that immense stack, had to have a place of confinement through the 24 foot hiatus. But there was no money in the treasury to pay for the filling of this 24 foot deficiency, nor was there any money in sight. Yet the contract had been let for the iron giant that is to tower 175 feet in the air, and the machinery foundation, with the asphalt, had been constructed."

These are fair samples of the way public money is squandered on municipal ownership and yet Tom Johnson is making his campaign on this issue. He may win out, but the chances are against him.

There are men in Janesville who believe that the city should own and operate its public utilities. They would invest public money in city water and lighting if not in a street railway service.

There are people in all parts of the country who advocate government ownership of railroads, express, and telegraph companies, and who maintain that the government can operate this class of utilities at less expense than private corporations.

This doctrine is the favorite creed of socialism and is as visionary as blue sky.

The experience of Ohio is being repeated in many other states, and the time will never come under a republican form of government, when the scheme will become either popular or practical.

Senator Hanna, of Ohio, refuses to enter into a joint debate with Tom Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor, until Mr. Johnson climbs down off the fence and defines his position. Tom Johnson and Governor La Follette are a good deal alike. Handy at making assertions.

Local bankers have investigated the character of Mr. Mills, the promoter of the Hook and Eye industry, and find him to be a man above reproach. Mr. Mills hopes to place the balance of his stock this week. His proposition appears on another page. The business has a very flattering outlook.

The trouble that has been brewing in the "Soo" country for the past two weeks, has culminated in a riot on account of the empty treasury. The consolidated company with $30,000,000 invested is practically bankrupt. The business will be reorganized under more skillful management and the valuable plant saved to the industrial world.

Miss Gomez, daughter of Mayor Gomez, of Linares, Mexico, is a girl that any nation would be proud to recognize. During the yellow fever epidemic, now raging, with the city nearly depopulated and her own father a victim to the scourge, the girl has assumed the government of the city, and is making a record for heroism that has given her national fame.

PEACE WITH HIS GOD AND MANKIND

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is Full of Meaning for the Jews.

Tomorrow is Yom Kippur, the Jew's day of atonement, his day of reconciliation, and tonight ushers in Israel's most sacred day. Rabbi Victor Aro says wherever the children of Jacob dwell on this vast globe—whether on the sun kissed soil of liberty or under the leaden sky of despotism and poverty—everywhere tonight has the magic power to bring together the scattered members of Israel. Some of the old may recall the touching and thrilling scenes of this eve, when the proud humbled themselves before the lowly, when enemies clasped hands, when the fervent wish was exchanged everywhere for "peace" in atonement; men and women, awed by the unapproachable majesty of the time, went to their devotion under the subdued flutter of a momentous task, warmed toward one another by the humanizing thought of their common sinfulness. They felt that a tremendous fate hung in the balance, and they were ready and eager for the Lord's favor to make their perfect peace with even the humblest brother whom they may have offended.

Unique Among Religions
 The ruling reflection of this evening, therefore, the thought that should master the worshiper and possess him, if he would enter into the spirit of the day, if he would let his heart be swayed by the appeal, is the thought of guilt as against our fellow man. The day of atonement represents a principle not found in any other religious system, and is a complete answer to all to whom Israel's god is a jealous Lord—one of justice and retribution alone. We admit that during the year the cold waves of materialism swept us far away from the shores of faith; often were we wrecked upon the rocks of wrong and evil; often without a rudder were we lost on the high heaving sea of selfishness, corruption, and inhumanity.

This Night
 Tonight they seek the compass pointing to a harbor of safety. The light kindled on that night is not a will-o'-wisp. It is still the steady torch, marching in front of the host of the house of Israel, leading them to their Father's home. They may have forgotten or never knew the Kippur of old. We live in an age of dissension. There was a time when common faith and common interest were the cement, moistened by our heart's blood, making us one. Now they are divided in sentiment and in fact. Among them are found Zionists who wish to return to Palestine. They have prophetic Jews who proclaim: "Where my God dwells, there is my fatherland."

Lay Aside All Dissensions
 Tonight they scorn all these dissensions, all the din and noise in the camp is drowned by the bugle call from on high, emphasizing "He who is yet the Lord's come to me." Tonight our souls are winged heavenward, borne aloft on the heart's cry of millions of our brethren finding its climax in an immortal sheen. On this point there is no dissension, no quarrel. Orient and occident reach to each other the hand of forgiveness. The proud and the lowly will not deny their common origin and our Lord's escutcheon is hoisted in every Jewish home.

Sin an Hellroom
 Sin is the hellroom of the flesh. The powers of discrimination and the sense of justice are veiled by hostile influences arising from the depth of passion and the promptings of illusions. Vanity and jealous blind us, that we can no longer behold the virtue of beauty. They often fail to recognize the right of our neighbor and tramp under foot his claims to enjoy the world's sunshine.

LOWELL GO.

HIGH SCHOOL IS TO MAKE EXHIBIT

MANUAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT WILL DO SPECIAL WORK.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS ALSO

Circulars Received by Superintendent Tell of Details in State Exhibit.

The Janesville high school will have an exhibit at the Louisiana purchase exposition. Circulars have been sent to Superintendent Buell from the committee on educational exhibits for the exposition. This committee has its headquarters at Milwaukee and Wm. G. Bruce is chairman. The exposition at St. Louis opens April 30th, and lasts until December 1, 1904.

Mr. Buell says that the high school will certainly take part in the work but as yet no plans have been made. The manual training department will probably send the largest and most varied exhibit and the standard of the work must necessarily be high.

The manual training department of the committee on the exhibit has also issued circulars and all of these have been sent to the schools and colleges in the state. The head of this department at the high school has been given the circular and will formulate a plan for the construction of the exhibits. These will be specimens of drafting, wood work, building designs, forge and iron work and the many other branches of the study.

These exhibits that will represent the state from Janesville will be placed under group "two," in the classification, and come under the head of "secondary education." Work under this head will be seen at the big exposition as the product of high schools, academies, manual training schools and commercial high schools.

A number of other departments in the high school course will, in all probability, have specimens of the work done to be sent with the manual training exhibit. These must all be finished prior to March 1st and delivered immediately in Milwaukee.

LAW APPLICANTS TO READ 3 YEARS

New Rules to Admission to the Bar Received by A. A. Jackson.

Secretary A. A. Jackson, of the board of law examiners for Wisconsin, has just received the printed copies of the revised statutes, rules, and forms relating to the examination of applicants for admission to the bar. One of the most noteworthy changes is the requirement that after January 1, all applicants must have read three years. There is one intervening examination in December, which will be held under the two-year rule.

Subjects Are Fixed. Other innovations are the rules of the supreme court fixing the subjects to be read by the applicant and rules adopted by the state board suggesting the books to be read. All of these rules became operative on the first day of August. Copies of them and application blanks may be procured from Attorney Jackson at his office in the postoffice block.

THE LORENZ METHOD TRIED ON CRIPPLE

"Doctor" W. A. Jackson Successfully "Operated" on Fakir at Local Jail.

The "artificial cripple" arrested by Officer Brown while pretending to be selling needles last week, has been released. Before the cell door was opened his wrist, which was twisted out of shape, was subjected to a critical examination by District Attorney Jackson, who was introduced to him as a doctor of medicine. "Doctor" Jackson, adopting the Lorenz method, bent the wrist back into shape and pronounced the injury an unqualified fraud. The fakir was very docile when released and begged the officer's permission to sit on the curb until the Rockford car came along.

LEASE OF HOTEL NOT YET SIGNED

Manager Johnson Has Not Taken Taken Goodwin Property at Beloit.

Negotiations are still continuing between E. W. Johnson, the former proprietor of the Myers hotel, and the owners of the Goodwin hotel in Beloit. Indefinite plans are being made between the parties interested but nothing has been decided upon and no lease has as yet been signed. It was not thought that anything definite will be done until the present complications with the Myers hotel have been settled.

Mayor Smith of Beloit is in the city today. With his wife he recently returned from an extended trip in the west. They spent a large part of the time in California.

"There is more worthless land between here and California than I ever dreamed of," said Mr. Smith this afternoon.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

Meet on Thursday: The O. E. S. will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. May Smiley, 126 Milton avenue.

Starts New Bottling Works: The Robinson brewery, of Spring Brook, have secured the cellar under Skelly and Wilbur's store and will fit out the place for a complete bottling department in connection with the brewery.

Woman's Foreign Missions: The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet for its regular meeting Friday, Oct. 2, at 3 p. m. Subject for the afternoon—A Century of Work for Women. Study the fifth chapter of Luke Christ. All are most cordially invited to this meeting.

Colored Man Examined: Louis Smith, the colored man arrested on the charge of knifing a man at Beloit last week, had his examination yesterday and his trial was set for October 6 before Judge Field in municipal court in this city. Smith has procured a guitar and is regarded as "the life of the party" by the prisoners in the county jail.

Killed Three Coons: Herb Abbott who lives four miles from town near the county farm yesterday shot three coons on his father's property. Young Abbott is a persistent hunter and every fall and winter bags a goodly number of fur-bearing animals. He is a good shot and is noted for his prowess with a gun.

Picnic Netted Good Sum: Father Goebel has made a report of the results of the picnic held by the St. Mary's church congregation on Lab-or-day at the south side park and the celebration was very successful from all standpoints as $288 was netted for the church. The cement curb and gutter around the street in front of the church property has been finished as well as the cement curb line in front of the main entrance. Fourteen cement hitching posts have been set up besides twenty new ones of the common variety.

WESTERN UNION WON THE SUIT

THE SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY DECIDED IN THEIR FAVOR.

FISHERS WERE PLAINTIFFS

Decision Sustains the Rulings of the Lower Court in an Important Case.

The following is the decision handed down in the supreme court, yesterday in the suit of Fisher and Fisher vs. the Western Union Telegraph company, in affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of Fisher and Fisher of Janesville against the Western Union Telegraph company the supreme court interestingly discusses the liability of a telegraph company in the transmission of telegrams. The decision is a victory for the telegraph company. The action was for the recovery of damages alleged to have been sustained by breach of duty on the part of the telegraph company in failing to deliver a telegram with reasonable diligence. The plaintiffs were dealers in tobacco at Janesville and on May 24, 1901, sent a telegram to A. Johnson at Westby, Wis., saying that they would accept Johnson's offer to sell them 923 cases of tobacco if he would pay the cost of sampling. Johnson wired back that he would not pay for the sampling, and the telegram was received at the Janesville office of the telegraph company at 7:40 o'clock the same evening, but was not delivered until three days afterward.

Their Claim. On the day after receiving the telegram from Fisher and Fisher Johnson sold his tobacco to another dealer. Fisher and Fisher were trying to buy the tobacco for Samuel L. Johns of McSherrytown, Pa., and were authorized to accept Johnson's original offer, and claim they would have done so had they received in time the telegram conveying Johnson's refusal to pay for sampling. By the delay in the delivery of the message Fisher and Fisher lost the opportunity of buying the tobacco, and claim they were thereby damaged in the sum of $923, which was the amount of commission they would have received from their principal if the sale had been consummated.

Lower Court

The lower court held that the damages claimed by the plaintiffs were too remote to be recovered. The higher court, by Associate Justice Marshall, says:

"The delayed dispatch was an adverse termination of a negotiation by which plaintiffs sought to obtain Johnson's tobacco. There was no suggestion in it for a continuance of negotiations. Nothing was to be effected by the delayed dispatch beneficial to applicants (Fisher and Fisher). The breach of duty was in respect to a closing event in a transaction not calling for or suggesting any further action on the part of either party thereof. Obviously, even if it be true that applicants would have renewed negotiations with Johnson and carried the same on had they been seasonably informed of the failure of their first effort, it cannot be said that such a course or result would have been in that natural order of things requisite to the proximate relation of damages to breach of duty which is necessary to legal liability therefor."

Our store will be closed at 6 o'clock this evening and all day Thursday, on account of holiday.

MUCH STOCK IS ALREADY TAKEN

Hook & Eye Company Now Seems To Be an Assured Thing. Says Mr. Mills.

Mr. Mills, the president of the U. P. Hook and Eye company, is much encouraged over the prospects of being able to secure the necessary subscription. Thus far nearly half of the twelve thousand five hundred dollars asked for has been subscribed in stock at fifty cents on the dollar and Mr. Mills says that he thinks without a doubt that by Saturday night the total sum will be reached and passed.

Like Proposition

The business men about the city are much pleased with the proposition and believe that it will be a good thing for a business standpoint for the city and for the shareholders. Mr. Mills expects the deal for his factory site within a few days or as soon as the necessary sum is raised.

Receives Promotion: Charles Knippenberg is spending a few days with his relatives in Janesville before going to Chicago where he will enter the office of General Superintendent Naylor of the American Express company. Mr. Knippenberg has been employed in the Madison office of the company for some time past and his promotion to the Chicago office is a decided honor.

ODD FELLOWS TO CONFER DEGREES

NUMBER EXPECTED FROM TOWNS IN THE STATE.

BANQUET AFTER CEREMONY

Rock River Encampment To Take Charge of Entertainment at East Side Hall Friday.

One hundred or more Odd Fellows are expected in the city by Friday evening when the Rock River Encampment will confer degrees on a class of ten subordinate lodge members. Eight of the Initiates will come from Orfordville, Wis., and the remaining two are Janesville men.

Good Crowd Expected.

Every Odd Fellow in the city will probably be present at the East Side Odd Fellows hall on Friday evening and following the ceremonies attending the conferring of degrees a banquet will be held at the lodge hall and a delightful social time is anticipated.

Royal Entertainers

The Rock River encampment has become widely known throughout the state and the many members who were at Stoughton recently remember the showing made at that celebration. The encampment will convince the men from the state that they are the equal of any in the entertaining line.

Many Delegates

It is expected that quite a number of towns will send good sized delegations and branches at Stoughton, Harbison, Delavan, Beloit, Evansville and Milwaukee have signified that representatives will be sent.

A. Show of Silver

No jewelry store in Janesville has ever made a display of silver surpassing that now being made in our establishment. In our show cases is now to be seen the most handsome and artistic pieces in silver and high-grade plated ware that has ever been shown before. Silver has for more than a century been in favor for wedding gifts. A plain teaspoon satisfied in the days of our great grandmother, but now that silver is more plentiful, and our prices bring it within the reach of all, the demand is for larger pieces.

WHAT CONSUMERS SAY OF U-PIN-IT HOOKS AND EYES

33 1-3 per cent Indorsement

- Aug. 3, 1903. Miss Zulu Routh, Graychapel, N. C. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. I think they are ever so nice and convenient. They are certainly an improvement over the old style.
- Aug. 4, 1903. Mrs. H. R. Tabler, Minooka, Ill. I wrote you as soon as I received my sample of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and told you I liked them first rate. About the best thing I ever got hold of.
- Aug. 5, 1903. Mary E. Haynes, Centerburg, O. I received a card of nickel colored U-Pin-Its from my dealer and what little I have used them I like them very well.
- Aug. 5, 1903. Mrs. J. P. A. Angler, Westboro, Mass. Yes, I received the little card of U-Pin-It Hook and Eyes and like them very much. I think people would like them if once tried.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Mrs. W. G. Mitchell, Milford, Conn. The card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes received. Find them useful when it is necessary to remove the hooks before garment is sent to be laundered.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Miss A. C. Moses, Mobile, Ala. I think the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes very handy for belts and where needle and thread are not handy.
- Aug. 6, 1903. H. F. Goshorn, Charleston, W. Va. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes for which please accept thanks. They are all you claim. Would recommend them to any one as they are so easily adjusted. Please accept thanks for the waist pins in advance. You may use this wherever you like.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Mrs. C. O. Smith, Troy, N. Y. I put the hooks and eyes on a white pique skirt and like them very much. They hold it firmly and are easily removed when skirt is laundered.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Mrs. F. Cheatham, Altoona, Kansas. I received the gold plated U-Pin-It and thank you for same. I think they are a good invention and so does every one to whom I have shown them.
- Aug. 7, 1903. M. A. McAvoy, S. A. Hughes, Detroit, Mich. I received the hooks and eyes sent me and after giving them a fair trial I found them to be quite an aid in the saving of time and also very convenient. I would be very pleased to receive the smaller size.
- Aug. 7, 1903. Fork Union, Va. The gold plated hooks and eyes you sent to E. B. Weaver were handed to me. I have been using them and find them very nice and convenient. I like them very much.
- Aug. 7, 1903. Mrs. Harvey Calvert, Crockett, N. Y. I received the sample card of hooks and eyes and am much pleased with them. Have shown them to some of my friends and they are also pleased with them. Can recommend them to any one.
- Aug. 8, 1903. Mrs. W. F. Slack, Lyme, N. H. I received the hooks and eyes and like them very much.
- Aug. 8, 1903. Mrs. J. C. Clark, Windsor, Conn. Yes, I received your card of hooks and eyes and thank you for them. What little used, I like them very much.
- Aug. 9, 1903. Miss Jessica Smith, Richmond, Ind. I received the card of hooks and eyes and think the idea is fine.
- Aug. 8, 1903. Mrs. H. J. Fairman, Barnes Corners, N. Y. I received the hooks and eyes and thank you very much. I am much pleased with them and know they will be much appreciated by all ladies who are as negligent as myself in sewing hooks and eyes on their skirts.
- Aug. 24, 1903. E. O. Clark, Studbury, Mass. I received the hooks and eyes. Have used them with light weight skirts and have found them very convenient.
- Aug. 8, 1903. Mary Maxwell, Plainfield, Ind. I am very much pleased with the sample of hooks and eyes. I think they are a very useful article and shall be pleased to receive sample of smaller size.
- Aug. 8, 1903. Mrs. John Sanford, Putney, Vt. I received the hooks and eyes and find them very convenient and would like a sample card of them in the small size for waists.
- Aug. 9, 1903. Mrs. E. J. Leavens, Troy, N. Y. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. I consider them the right thing in the right place. They will find a long felt want.
- Aug. 10, 1903. Mrs. J. P. McCalmont, Wellsville, O. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. They are very nice and all who see them like them.
- July 29, 1903. Mrs. John Dock, Moscow, Idaho. A. S. Brake handed me the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes you sent him. I think they are good and will recommend them.
- Aug. 3, 1903. Mrs. Anna A. Preston, Maple Corners, Long Island, N. Y. Mr. Hans Henson, our dealer, gave me the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. I have used them and consider the device a very useful one for plaques. They are very nice as well as ornamental.
- Aug. 4, 1903. Mrs. C. E. Warner, Jefferson, O. The gold plated hooks and eyes were duly delivered to me. Kindly accept thanks. I found them quite a convenience for many purposes.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Mrs. Fred F. Musch, Macomb, Ill. I received the card of hooks and eyes you sent me and like them very much, especially since they are so easily adjusted. I think they are just what is needed as they can be so easily removed, thereby lessening the cause of rust stain.
- Aug. 17, 1903. Mrs. W. A. Dobson, Bethany, Nebr. I was much pleased with the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. I have shown them to many friends and all express admiration and a desire to obtain some for themselves.
- Aug. 17, 1903. Mrs. L. H. Stalker, Middlebury, Vt. It gives me pleasure to say that I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes you so kindly sent me. I have found them very desirable, convenient, without being bungling or heavy. Think they ought to find ready sale.
- Aug. 17, 1903. Miss A. S. Gaskill, Windsor, N. J. I like the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes very much and trust you will send me the card as promised.
- Aug. 17, 1903. Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Banker, Me. Yes, I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am much pleased with them. I should be pleased to receive the small ones for waists.
- Aug. 17, 1903. Mrs. G. W. Davison, Rochester, N. Y. I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and wear them on the cuffs to shirt waists and like them very much as my eyes are poor and I can hook them so easily. I thank you for them and would be pleased to receive small size for waists.
- Aug. 18, 1903. Miss M. L. Moore, Richmond, Va. I am pleased with the Hooks and Eyes sent me and have used no other kind since.
- Aug. 18, 1903. Ida S. Millington, Passaic, N. Y. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am now trying them. I think, as far as I can judge that they may prove handy and make the ordinary hooks and eyes seem troublesome.
- Aug. 10, 1903. Anna Schilson, Hamilton, Ill. I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am very much pleased with them. Think they are very nice and handy as they are ready for use immediately. Please accept my thanks for same also for the waist set which I hope you will send me.
- Aug. 19, 1903. Miss Edna Haines, Brokenstraw, N. Y. I write in regard to these pins. I like them and think them a very handy little pin. I will be glad to receive the other pins. I will take pleasure in showing them and recommending them to other people.
- Aug. 17, 1903. M. W. Hardin, Seattle, Wash. Am well pleased with the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and will thank you very much for the small size for skirt waists. Have mentioned them to several ladies, also to my dress-maker.
- Aug. 18, 1903. Rev. S. S. Barker, Swan Quarter, N. C. The sample card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes was duly received. I regard them as a valuable invention and an admirable fastening for women's and children's underwear. I see no reason why when their convenience becomes known they would not entirely do away with the use of buttons and button holes.
- Aug. 18, 1903. Olevia Hornally, Winchester, Texas. I write to let you know I received the sample hook and eye. I like the pins very well.
- Aug. 21, 1903. M. M. Rankin, Plainfield, Ind. Your favor at hand and I thank you for the sample. Kindly send me two cards of your U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes No. 3 and No. 6. Find enclosed stamps to pay for them.
- Aug. 18, 1903. Mrs. Fred Gadapee, North Danville, Vt. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am very much pleased with them. They just suit me because they can be attached to any garment so quickly and can be removed when the garment is laundered, thus keeping them in shape and free from rust.
- Aug. 19, 1903. Mrs. Cora Kirby McClurg, Long Beach, Calif. I received the gold plated Hooks and Eyes and am very much pleased with them. I think they are so much better than any I have ever seen.
- Aug. 20, 1903. Mrs. Nathan G. Smith, Machias, Me. I wish to acknowledge receipt of a card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes for which I thank you very much. They make a very convenient as well as useful fastening.
- Aug. 20, 1903. Mrs. W. M. Sargent, Ayer, Mass. I received the sample hook and eye and find it very useful, as it is always ready without the trouble of sewing to adjust it. A grand idea as a time saver and that is what the present generation is looking for.
- Aug. 22, 1903. Mrs. G. Bryan, Bridgeport, Conn. I received the U-Pin-It. Its all right and am very much pleased with them. They are so useful in so many ways and I think cannot be excelled. The best I ever saw.
- Aug. 21, 1903. Mrs. Wayne McKinney, Winslow, Wash. I received your hooks and eyes and think they are a big improvement over the old ones and would be glad to try the ones for waists, etc.
- Aug. 16, 1903. H. White, Hastings, Fla. I received the card of gold plated hooks and eyes and like them very much for skirt bands for wash skirts.
- Aug. 10, 1903. Mrs. Judge Minor, Richland Center, Wis. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. Have tried them and find they fill a long felt want. Many thanks.
- Aug. 10, 1903. Stella B. Still, Tonganoxie, Kansas. I received the hooks and eyes and like them very much, they are so handy. Accept my thanks for them.
- Aug. 11, 1903. Miss Alma Peck, Redlands, Calif. I received the card of hooks and eyes and think they are very convenient and ingenious.
- Aug. 11, 1903. Anna G. Shipman, Springfield, O. I think your hooks and eyes very desirable for wash fabrics where there is danger of rust.
- Aug. 11, 1903. M. M. Wineland, Tacoma, Wash. I received the hooks and eyes and thank you for them. They are neat and are very useful.
- Aug. 12, 1903. Mrs. N. B. Niles, Hartford, Conn. The card of hooks and eyes came in due season and I have used them almost constantly and like them very much.
- Aug. 12, 1903. Miss Florence Clark, Ashtabula, O. I received the sample card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and was very much pleased with them. I think they come in very handy.
- Aug. 13, 1903. Mrs. Harry A. Gates, Parkersburg, W. Va. The gold plated Hooks and Eyes received and found to be very satisfactory. I am much pleased with them being so easily and quickly adjusted, they are quite a convenience.
- Aug. 13, 1903. Mrs. E. H. Galunp, Norwich, Conn. The card of pins received. I think they will be very useful for many purposes, especially on wash materials and thank you for the privilege of testing them.
- Aug. 14, 1903. Stella Lucia Mann, Bedford, Pa. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. Am making use of them and like them very much.
- Aug. 14, 1903. E. F. Allen, Suffield, Conn. I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and they are all right. Many thanks for your kindness. Will speak a good word for U-Pin-Its whenever I get a chance.
- Aug. 14, 1903. Mrs. W. L. Wright, Brockton, Mass. Have not used the hooks and eyes you so kindly sent me but I can appreciate the clever idea and the usefulness of them.
- Aug. 14, 1903. Miss Nettie W. Entlers, Sheperdstown, W. Va. I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes for which I thank you very much. I think they will do fine for skirt fastenings.
- Aug. 14, 1903. Mrs. B. J. Sandy, Winfred, S. D. I received your pins and was much pleased with them.
- Aug. 14, 1903. Angie Adams, Greenfield, Mass. I received the gold plated Hooks and Eyes. I find them very handy. It is such an easy matter to transfer them from one suit to another. I think they will be a great seller. I thank you for them.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Mrs. B. H. Van Scoy, E. Hampton, N. Y. I enjoy the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes very much and should be much pleased with a card for waists.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Mrs. E. H. Lyman, Hartford, Conn. I received the card of hooks and eyes and am much pleased with them. They are the most durable and convenient patent I ever used.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Alma Peters, Rathdrum, Ida. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am much pleased with them. They are the most durable and convenient patent I ever used.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Ella Shauck, Glen Rock, Pa. I received the card of gold plated Hooks and Eyes. I am pleased with them as they are just what we need for wash goods. They are so quickly removed from one garment to another. They are always safe as they cannot come unfastened. They can be used anywhere instead of pins, common hooks and eyes or buttons.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Adela Cooke, Northampton, Mass. I think the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes are very convenient and neat—a boon to babies I am sure.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Neva Gates, Idaville, Ind. Received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and was very pleased with them.
- Aug. 15, 1903. Mrs. Grover Jackson, Hillsdale, Mich. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes duly. I like them exceedingly well. They fill a long felt want.
- Aug. 22, 1903. Mrs. S. C. Potts, Green Bay, Wis. I received your hooks and eyes all right and like them very much and hope you will send me a card of your U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes, small size for waists.
- Aug. 24, 1903. Mrs. L. E. Lane, W. Groton, Mass. The sample of gold plated Hooks and Eyes were received all right. I think they will be very convenient, especially for ladies' waists and skirts.
- Aug. 24, 1903. Mrs. Chas. Munsell, Orange, Mass. I received the sample of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and will say that I think they will be a very useful article.
- Aug. 25, 1903. Erma Wilson, Flint, Mich. Received the hooks and eyes and was very much pleased with them. They are well worth what they are advertised to be. They are safe and substantial and easily adjusted.
- Aug. 25, 1903. Mrs. Frank W. Pierce, Rodman, N. Y. I received the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes which you kindly sent me and like them very much. They are very convenient and I am greatly pleased to recommend them.
- Aug. 26, 1903. Eunice L. Harrison, Spiritwood, N. D. Just received the sample card of your hooks and eyes and am pleased to say that I think they are fine. Will be much obliged for your card of smaller ones and will also give them a fair trial.
- Aug. 27, 1903. Miss Kate Becker, Denison, Texas. The card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes were handed to me in proper time and I like them very much and will be pleased to have you send me a waist set.
- Aug. 28, 1903. Nellie Wilder, Sunderland, Mass. I received two sample Hooks and Eyes you sent me and think they are excellent for what I wanted of them—to lengthen or shorten skirt bands.
- Aug. 28, 1903. Miss Alice E. Totten, Washington, Kan. I received the hooks and eyes and think lots of them as they are so handy. I have shown them to other ladies and they are going to try them.
- Aug. 29, 1903. Mrs. Leslie Woodwick, Elmhurst, Mass. The U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes received from Mrs. Mabery work very well. Will be pleased to receive a sample card from you.

- Aug. 29, 1903. G. W. Cropley, Milford, Va. I received the card of U-Pin-Its and think they are a good device and will ask dealer to order some. Will thank you very much for sample of small hook and eye.
- Aug. 30, 1903. Mrs. A. E. Sherwood, San Jose, Calif. I received the card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and like them very much and thank you for same.
- Sept. 1, 1903. Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Gouverneur, N. Y. I received some time ago through H. Peter & Co., a card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and am pleased with them.
- Sept. 2, 1903. Miss Lizzie McConnell, Oakwood, Ga. I am highly pleased with the U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes. They are far ahead of anything in their line. They being so easily put on, adjusted or removed makes them useful in many more ways than the old style hooks and eyes.
- Sept. 2, 1903. Irma G. Moore, Brooklyn, N. Y. I received your card of U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes and find them very useful not only as fasteners but also as skirt supporters. The hook portion alone may be used with a belt or both can be used to fasten waist and skirt together.
- Sept. 9, 1903. A. Hodgson, Loutherville, Md. I found the sample card of Hooks and Eyes very useful and consider your invention an excellent one. If you will send me price per dozen I will be glad to order some more as they are very useful and convenient little articles.
- Aug. 6, 1903. Emma S. Moore, Columbus, Ind. I have received the card of Hooks and Eyes for which please accept thanks. They are all you claim. Would recommend them to any one as they are so easily adjusted. Please accept thanks for the waist pins in advance. You may use this wherever you like.
- Aug. 11, 1903. Kate L. Baldwin, Southfield, Mass. I received the card of Hooks and Eyes and thank you for same; have used them and like them very much.

A Question of Profit

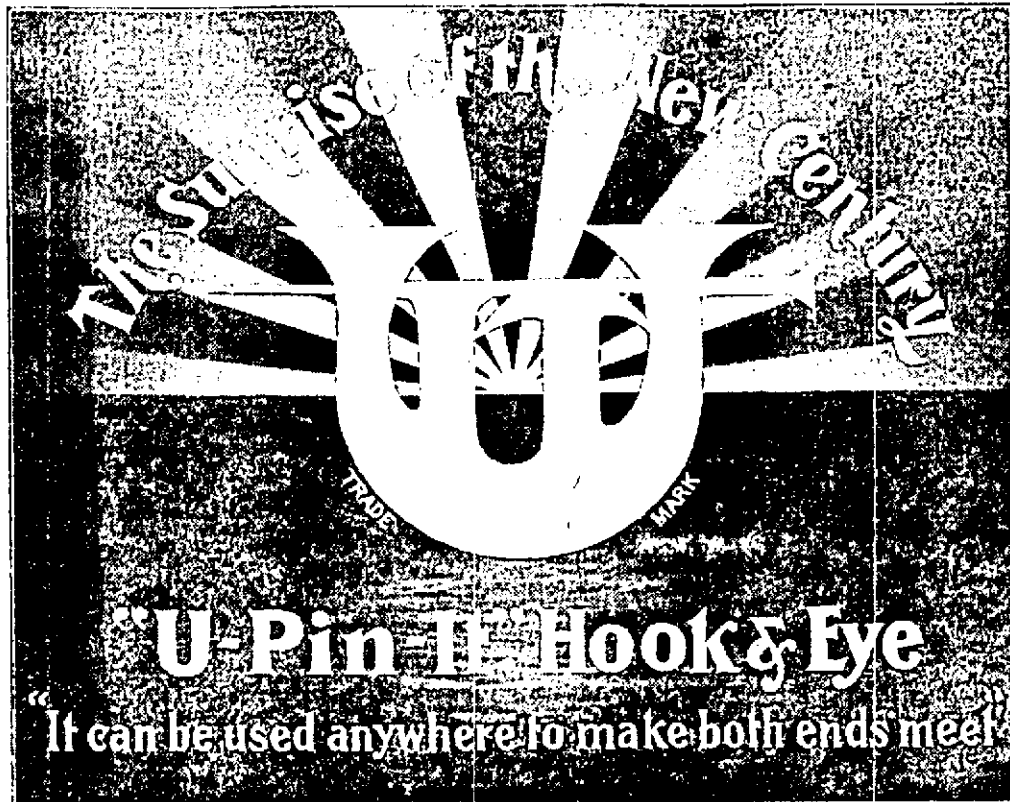

45 per cent DIVIDENDS

both Possible and Probable in a Growing Industry soon to be Established in Janesville.

Association

Our Proposition...

Opportunity

IN consideration of the purchase by the members of your association or citizens of your city or both, of 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye Company, a corporation duly organized etc. at an especially low price of 50c per share to be paid for in cash, the U-Pin-It Hook & Eye Company proposes and will agree to establish its plant in the city of Janesville, employ from forty to fifty people, four-fifths of which number will be men, operate all its machines, manufacture and continue to manufacture hooks and eyes and any other articles which it may hereafter introduce and place upon the market.

The U-Pin-It Hook & Eye Company will agree with the subscribers to the above numbered shares, or with the Business Men's Association, to place the majority of the capital stock of said corporation with three trustees, for the purpose of combining the interests of its present and future subscribers and to keep the majority of the capital stock of the company intact. It is suggested that Mr. Mills, the president of the company, be one of the trustees; that the business men of Janesville agree upon or elect the second trustee; and that the two trustees so selected, elect the third trustee. It is also proposed that the business men of Janesville agree upon two citizens to be elected directors of said corporation in behalf of the subscribers in Janesville and in the interest of stockholders and matters generally.

.. A Statement of the Company's Profits ..

PRESENT CAPACITY	COST OF PRODUCTION	SELLING PRICE	PROFITS
Per day, 200 gross	$100	$250	$150
Per year, 60,000	$30,000	$75,000	$45,000

Our Ten New Machines when completed will give us the Following Results:

Per day, 700 gross	$350	$875	$525
Per year, 210,000	$105,000	$262,500	$157,000

Estimating the office expenses, cost of advertising, etc., at 50 per cent of the profits, with only our present capacity, there should be $22,500, net profits to pay out on a capital of $250,000 next year, just 9 per cent on our capital stock. If you purchase stock at 50c a share, you would be receiving 18 per cent on your investment. By adding ten machines the dividends would be increased, as the above figures will show, to 31 per cent on the capital stock or 62 per cent on the investment. These figures do not include the profits made on our horse blanket pins and mail order business.

In figuring the profits on ten machines, it is not to be understood that we will not need more than this number, for we need ten additional machines now. The DeLong Hook and Eye Company have over 50 machines in operation, and employ about 200 people in their plant at the present time.

You will, no doubt, say that the above figures depend entirely on our ability to sell the goods. With reference to this, we will illustrate the present condition of our business in saying that we are now unable to supply the demand made upon us because of our limited facilities for manufacturing. What may we not expect in the future.

Again you may say, "perhaps the women will not like it." To this query we will reply that a letter sent to 300 women who have given the the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye practical tests, and which asked them to state just what they thought of it, brought in more than 33 1-3 per cent of actual endorsements. Experienced advertising specialists tell us that 2 1/2 per cent returns is considered good.

Thirty-three and one-third per cent of the women who have given the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye a practical test have actually endorsed it; this means that of the 6,000,000 gross or more of hooks and eyes manufactured and sold every year, we will be the producers of at least 2,000,000 gross on which we make a profit of 75 cents to the jobber and $1 to the retailer.

We are informed that the manufacturers of the "Hump" Hook and Eye, to be sewed on, have made over $1,000,000 in profits in the last few years. Their stock has been recently quoted at $10 per share—par value $1.

We are the inventors and sole manufacturers of U-Pin-It Hook and Eye, the only Hook and Eye in the world that positively does away with sewing. From a few advertisements placed in women's magazines, we received ten thousand inquiries within a few months. U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes are now sold in nearly every state in the Union and have been placed on sale as far away as Sydney and Melbourne, N. S. W., over 10,000 miles from our home market. The machines used in manufacturing U-Pin-It Hook and Eyes are entirely automatic and were designed and built especially for us. These machines, which are almost human in their operation, are the most wonderful automatic wire bending machines in the world and were the first ever built to manufacture a two-pointed pin.

It is not in the least improbable that shares of stock, which by the above agreement are purchased for 50c per share, will within two or three years be worth from $2 to $3 each. As a profitable investment for the individual purchaser of U-Pin-It stock, this will, therefore, need no further emphasis than that we CONFIDENTIALLY BELIEVE this advanced figure will be realized. On the basis of "public spiritedness" the location of our factory in Janesville and the general benefit of the enterprise to its citizens and vicinity will be apparent to you.

Boys Accept Invitation of Professor
Who Urges Upon Them the Opportunity to Make Money.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 30.—Minneapolis high school students have been given an opportunity to work in the flour mills in place of striking millers. The invitation was given by a professor, who said the mills afforded an excellent opportunity for employment for those who needed work and money. Thirty students reported to the mills, but most of them were persuaded by the strikers to turn away. University students are still working in mills even after the faculty has been served with notice that the labor unions will try to prevent the passage of appropriation bills if the students were not called out. Preston Y. Dunwoody, son of the treasurer of the elevator company, died from the effects of bursting a blood vessel while lifting heavy sacks in the mills. He was an office man, but went to work in the mills on account of the strike.

"If you want to know what smartly dressed men are wearing this season, ask to see the Ziegler Clother."

A LUXURIOUS OVERCOAT

may be worn by you this winter at moderate cost, if you'll buy a custom-tailored ready to wear which in fit, fabric and workmanship you'll find as satisfactory, or more so, than any that was ever made to your order by an ordinary custom-tailor.

Here you will find a complete assortment of models of the most stylish Overcoats—such coats as will please the ultra as well as the moderate fashionable men—and the prices—a great deal less than you'd pay a tailor for like quality.

You can make your selection now and if you do not wish to take it until later we will lay it aside for you. BE WISE.

Good substantial overcoats at $10 and $12

We are showing an immense line of Black or Oxford Cheviots and Meltons and Kersey at

At 18 and $20

you will not be able to distinguish them from the models of the best tailors.

You will wonder how such finely made coats can be sold for such reasonable prices

ROYAL SLUMBER BLANKETS

These blankets are All Wool, large size, 1 1/4, and the styles are PLAIDS and CHECKS in beautiful colorings. Last year there was considerable call for them, but good styles at a moderate price were scarce. A pair of these blankets will dress up the bed. Our assortment now is large.

The Price, $6

GREAT! GREAT! GREAT!

The SUITS for Women and Misses that are selling at $6.50 and $7.50 are simply GREAT VALUES. No excuse for not having a new suit. We offer them at $6.50 and $7.50 to close them out soon, as we need the room.

Think! $2.50

Causing excitement? No Wonder. Who ever heard of a good suit at $2.50? They are going; also the SKIRTS at same price—they are being much talked about.

WRAPPER BLANKETS

Prettier than ever. Imported wrapper blankets, handsome floral designs, stripes and novelties, dark and light shadings—two grades.

$3.50 and $2.50

SLUMBER ROBES

HINDOO ROBES—a light covering, just enough to prevent taking cold when stretched out for a few minutes' rest

$2 and $1.25

Flannelette Night Gowns

Now showing an unusual complete stock. Did you see them in our window last week. No such line ever before shown in Janesville. In addition to gowns for Women and Men we show all sizes for Children. It does not pay to make them.

50c to $3
